Born To Be Master

Living in this bloody scene is so great but so damn cruel
To get to the top is harder than ever
But that's alright
I'm ready to climb
I feel so brave
I was born to be

Born to be master!

Street Fighter
Fighting in the streets
Rocking to be crowned
The King Of Fighters
Fighting in the streets
Rocking to be king

Street Fighter...

My strenght is my guide
Match after match I'm flying so high
But that's alright
I'm ready to fight
I feel so brave
I was born to be

Born to be master!

Street Fighter
Fighting in the streets
Rocking to be crowned
The King Of Fighters
Fighting in the streets
Rocking to be king

"Born To Be master" is inspired on a great song called "Street Fighter" originally recorded by the swedish rock band "Sacrifice". It belongs to a very rare vinyl released on 1985. Even though the song has been created nearly three years before the first video game, it perfectly resembles the whole atmosphere of the series. MegaDriver brought a new remix to the instrumental and a brand new lyrics inspired on the modern fighting games e-sport scene.

Wrath Of The Raging Demon

Born as man, raised a demon, forged by the arts of shadows
The intent to kill, addicted to battle

Guided by the fire that burns in the night
No mercy, no sorrow, just fight in his heart
The instant hell murder, the fatal strike

Only the greatest will fall before him
Fierce and furious the challenge must be
To fight is the greed

Oh! Behold the magic taking control!
It's the wrath of the raging demon devouring your soul!

You're not worthy of fighting me!
That's why I will let you live!
Just an ordinary human...

I wear in my neck the mark of powers
I've killed my old master to prove my honors
Don't bow before me, stand and fight me!

For I am the fire! I am the beast!
I fight to the death, I'm the fist master, supreme!

"Wrath Of The Raging Demon" is a remix of the Akuma theme. Lyrics was inspired by the character's unique history and art of fighting. He only fights opponents that can bring a good challenge. Even death by his hands is a great honor

Hurricane!

Aniquilar seu oponente
Viver com gana a glória eminente
Golpes certos disparam a fúria
Vivendo e brindando vitória e luxúria

Hurricane!

Perpetuar seus ensinamentos
Sempre honrar todos os juramentos
Cada vitória aumenta o anseio
Mirando o oponente, o perigo alheio

Hurricane!

Resistir projetando o ataque
Chutes e socos levando ao nocaute
EM poucos segundos me vangloriarei
Eterno campeão Upper Hurricane

Hurricane!

"Hurricane" lyrics was written in Brazilian Portuguese by Allan "Big Thunder".
The song is inspired on the legendary fighter Joe Higashi, the eternal
"Upper Hurricane"

The Edge Of Soul

Go! To Shine!

We all need to shine on, to see how far we've come on our journey
How far yet to go, searching for our star

Deep in the night, I pray in my heart for that special light
To shower me with love
To shower me with power
To shine from above

I got to get to the Edge of Soul, to carry on what I believed in from the very start
I got to get to the Edge of Soul, to carry on deep in my heart

Go! To Shine!

Come strip down and face it, your all
About time you broke down your wall
Free your mind
A brand new world waits for you, you'll find

Nobody can just do it for you
It's time that you knew
It's up to you to love
It's up to you to shine
The light true and blue

You got to get to the Edge of Soul, to carry on what you believed in from the very start
You got to get to the Edge of Soul, to carry on,
deep in your heart

"The Edge Of Soul" is a power metal cover of the song originally composed by Yoshiya / Motoaki / Sobut. It's present on the opening animation from "Soul Edge".
